

Hi ...I am not any one special...I am just a parent of 2 kids that have to go to school in the schools that has no God in itI would love to see prayers back in the school....we need this to keep our schools safeI dont know if you have noticed but all the shootings and bombings did not start til God was kicked outthen he gets the blame for it allif he is not allowed in how do people think He can do anything about it all.....If you want to prove yourself a good person and a good govnor please do the right thing and help get prayer back in the schoolsthank you

Sheila